A first-half header from Matt Tubbs was enough for the Blades, who will rest a host of players before Saturday's trip to promotion favourites Leeds. It was the first time this season that Chris Wilder's men had kept a clean sheet. And a penalty from Preston striker Tom Ince was denied by Blades keeper John Lundstram. The Blades are unbeaten in four, while Posh have suffered their first away defeat since 12 September. United are fourth in the table, 22 points off leaders Bristol City, who host Wolves on Saturday, while Posh are in 17th place, 12 points above the drop zone. This was United's ninth successive league victory - a club record - and they remain unbeaten in the league since their opening day home defeat to Brentford. A first-half equaliser for the visitors was cancelled out by their own goalkeeper Scott Flinders, who saved at point-blank range from Gary MacKenzie. But United took the lead moments after the interval, with Tubbs' header into the net from Oliver Norwood's corner. Preston's Ince had missed two decent opportunities before he was beaten by Lundstram just before the hour mark. Ince directed a shot towards the bottom corner, but the Blades' keeper was on hand to
